Release: Enhancement of Additional Rates Products

As a result of continued strategic investment in our broking and data businesses, TraditionDATA is happy to announce the expansion of our leading interest rate service.

TraditionDATA has significantly enhanced and increased its interest rate content. With the introduction of additional non-standard tenors over existing products coupled with new rates curves, TraditionDATA's already great coverage has been upgraded.

The expanded coverage includes Scandinavian and Central Eastern European interest rate, basis and cross-currency swaps as well as OIS and FRAs.
